

---

Polygonaceae (Knotweed/Buckwheat Family)

---

Phenology: plants usually leafless when flowering and fruiting (September through November).

Management Responsibility: San Carlos Tribe, AZ Dept of Transportation.

Similar Species: no other shrubby Eriogonum occurs on gypsum outcrops in Graham County.

Notes: species has limited distribution; associated with Purshia subintegra, a federally listed species.

Reference: AGFD, 1997p. Phillips, A.M. et al, 1982j.

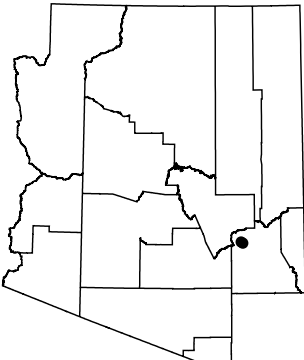

Barb Phillips

Eriogonum apachense

Habitat: white gypsum soils on
low rolling hills in Sonoran Desert at 2, 850 ft (870 m)
elevation.

Sue Rutman/FWS

Range: endemic near Bylas.