

2022 Arizona Native Plant Society Botany Meeting Agenda

Saturday, December 3rd
9:00 am to 3:30 pm

Virtual via Zoom
Register at: aznps.com

- 9:00 – 9:05 Log on to Zoom
- 9:05 - 9:15 Welcome and Introduction - Doug Ripley, President of Arizona Native Plant Society
- 9:15 - 9:55 Julia Fonseca - Megadrought in the Cienega Creek Natural Preserve
- 9:55 – 10:05 BREAK
- 10:05 – 10:45 Wendy C. Hodgson - Hesperoyucca newberryi (Agavaceae), the overlooked stepsister of the well-known Chaparral-yucca, H. whipplei
- 10:45 - 10:55 Show & Tell - AZNPS Website Plant List Overview (Jack Dash)
- 10:55 - 11:35 Anita B. Thompson - Salvia Species: More Than Just A Pretty Flower
- 11:35 –12:15 Frankie S. Coburn - The Unique Flora of the Prescott Region: Progress and Highlights
- 12:15 -12:50 LUNCH BREAK
- 12:50 -1:10 Anita B. Thompson – Wild-Harvesting Native Seed on State and Federal Lands
- 1:10 - 2:00 Panel Discussion - Ask A Native Plant Specialist
Panelists: Jack Dash, Gayle Gratop, Dan Carroll
- 2:00–2:10 BREAK
- 2:10 - 2:50 John Scheuring - Successional and keystone native emergence following invasive plant control in Southern Arizona
- 2:50 - 3:10 Frankie S. Coburn, Kimberly Jenkins, and Doug Von Gausig - Discovery of Aphyllon riparium, a rare riparian holoparasite new to the Arizona flora
- 3:10 - 3:30 Meeting closing talks and announcements